Capt. Traylor recently visited our Front Line Charley's Capt's Allan, Cooper and They all seem to be doing fine business in spite of the hard position. It has been noted that Capt. Allan has his clinic in a well sheltered position behind a building.

 press it's thanks in the detachments for the way that they have been rendering their reports. It has been of great assistance.

Sgt. Champous and Sgt. Senyk are reported to be applying for another leave. Could it be that they are still able to take it?

WE COME TO THE SUBJECT OF
 Yes, it seems that everybody is leaving these days.
 I can't remember when they were really unobtainable we find all we have to do is ask shall be given. Already all of the unit has either applied for or visited the office of Florence or "sell".
 in anticipation of the leave of fellow. The advice of the is to take it while the tank is good because -- tomorrow too late. Reports filtering that leave is to be "Leave is according to plan". That can't mean anything and probably.

Your roving reporter learned this week why Cpl Switzer and Cpl Coony aren't very anxious about leave. It seems they are sharing a very luscious blonde in the near vicinity of H.Q. Watch out boys, you may think you are wolves but ----.

 Is the reason why everybody didn't give the doc his clinic as previously in the last issue of the Molar MacLeod has definitely left the base. Are you still on your Major's list?

CSM Jones wishes to extend his heartfelt gratitude to all and sundry who participated in the show the other night. He hopes to be able to put on another during the coming festive period of December and cordially invites all those out on detachment to attend.

Six months ago an order came out for all units to have an E.T.O. set up and No. 1 Coy. was one of the first to comply. But, believe it or not the first to use it was our cook Slim Skethurst who after taking advantage of a beautiful red head introduced to him by our C.S.M. (confidentially she was #5). The C.S.M. was quite surprised Slim, he never dreamed you would take advantage of her
